BIO

Born in Winter Haven, Florida. Moved to Londonderry, New Hampshire with his family when he was 3 years old and grew up in this small town of 25,000 in a home filled with music from albums and the radio and with a stepfather who introduced him to music as an art form through the guitar and piano.

At age 20, became front man of first band singing cover songs while working on his first originals.

At age 21, stepfather gave him an acoustic guitar for his birthday and taught him a few basic chords on it which gave a creative outlet to write original songs.

Moved to Cocoa Beach, Florida in 1996 and formed award-winning band, Shūfly (Best of Miami Pop Rock 2002, Best of Miami Acoustic 2008).

As front man and writer, performed for 7 years with Shūfly, opening for the Dave Matthews Band, Lenny Kravitz, Smash Mouth, Stroke Nine, Foreigner, Stabbing Westward, Jefferson Starship, Molly Hatchet, Cool For August and others.

Song – “Artificially Twisted” – from Shūfly’s 1st album featured in a television commercial for Macy’s (known then as Burdine’s).

Song written for his son – “Missing” – from Shūfly’s 2nd album featured on the CBS primetime show “Cane” in episode 7, season 1.

Sang the National Anthem for the Miami Heat 3 times (including the playoffs) as well as the Miami Sol.

Played throughout Los Angeles, New England and South Florida in festivals like Miami’s Art Basel and the South Beach Wine and Food Festival in which he opened for Gloria Estefan.

Featured Artist at benefits and specials performing at Tobacco Road as well as at Songwriters Showcases including one held at the Broward Center for the Performing Arts.

Performed in many musical benefits for the Breast Cancer Society, Save The Glades, PACE Center for Girls, Art Basel, Miami Beach Food & Wine Festival, Thanksgiving At The Park Benefit for Families, Monserrat Volcano Relief Benefit and more for churches, charities and foundations as well as other various fundraisers for children battling cancer.

Wrote demo "Girl Like You" for Univision boyband project (unreleased).

Wrote bridge for Rob Thomas's (Matchbox 20) "Pieces Of You" (unreleased).

Current work in progress – multi-genre body of songs titled A Lover Still.

Currently shopping latest written unreleased material to other artists and different forms of multimedia.

Resides in Miami with his wife, their baby girl, Faith, and his 2 young stepsons.
